

“Work @ Home RockStar” INTERVIEW NOTES/FLOW

Thanks for being a guest on an upcoming show - here are some helpful notes to help you Rock!

- Interviews are audio- video and recorded via Zoom. The full episodes are released audio through libsyn. The full video is released on my youtube channel.
- You should already have a zoom invitation in your inbox. If you don't or if you have any other questions before our interview, please send me an email me at tim@workathomerockstar.com.
- Please be prepared for the Zoom call at the agreed upon time. There will be a quick chat to get to know each other before we hit record and we will check to ensure all audio is working.
- We are booking 1 hour for the interview. However, each show will be about 30 minutes when it airs. The format is fun, informal and candid!
- You'll be notified before your show airs (which happens about 4 weeks after it's recorded), and will be supplied with links to share with your social networks.
- Legal stuff: By participating in the Work @ Home RockStar interview, you agree to allow Work @ Home RockStar to record, distribute, and disseminate the podcast in any manner. You also agree to allow Work @ Home RockStar to retain rights to the produced media for potential future use in speeches, books, and in all other public distribution.

AT THE BEGINNING OF THE SHOW I like to take a minute to give the listeners a better of idea of who you are with a very brief bio. Please send what you would like me to say about you so that I can introduce you.

When I'm ready to start with the questions, I'll ask you “ARE YOU READY TO ROCK?”

Guest Solo: Tell us what you are excited about in your business. This is a great time to pitch your business/product and entice us to get in touch with you.

If you'd like either I can share your Contact details or you can do an encore with how to get in touch with you.
